Some success stories

City & Guilds in Afghanistan- Offering hope amidst the war

Afghanistan, ravaged by decades of war, has seen its labour force depleted; leading to severe brain drain and degradation of labour quality caused by frequent turmoil and instability in the functioning of its system of governance. The Turquoise Mountain Institute for Afghan Arts & Architecture, a City & Guilds accredited institute, is gradually playing a crucial role in the rebuilding process by promoting its ancient artistic heritage. Through skills-based education, C&G works with the youth to ensure that they have access to a brighter future in the country.

The Ghana Story- Empowering women, enriching communities

Farming communities in Ghana were facing increasingly difficult production challenges and adverse market conditions. They urgently needed both agricultural and enterprise skills to improve their livelihoods to help them make the most of changing circumstances. City & Guilds CSD, worked in Ghana, to identify meaningful ways to help women farmers and small land holders in poorer parts benefit from skills training. CSD's research showed that training women can have a large impact on productivity and a positive effect on communities.

Empowering underprivileged communities

IndiaSkills has partnered with a State Government's Scheduled Caste/ Schedule Tribes Development body to train and employ deserving youth. With an aim of enhancing livelihood through vocational skills training, the Development body chose IndiaSkills as a preferred training partner. The partnership, an ideal model for similar bodies, is running successfully now.

World class skills for the needy youth

In a first of its kind partnership, a social contributor from a Metro city teamed-up with IndiaSkills to train, certify and employ 1000 youngsters living in the slums of the city. The ongoing project is a huge success with the first three batches of students having gotten job opportunities with leading companies like Reliance Retail, Shoppers Stop, Café Coffee Day etc.

Vision: To train and certify 1 million youth by establishing a network of 500 centres covering at least 50% of India's districts by 2015.
